

Our Trees Need Your Vote!

Members of Facilities Services proudly display Clark College's Tree Campus USA award during the college's 2013 Arbor Day event.

Clark College is one of 10 finalists in the national Arbor Day Foundation's annual Tree Campus USA "Celebrate Arbor Day Event Contest," large school division. The contest, which includes college campuses from across the United States, will reward five colleges in each division with materials, funding, and support for a special Arbor Day celebration in 2015.

Winning colleges will be determined by the number of votes received at the contest's website. Public voting begins October 15 and runs through October 22. Every person is allowed to vote once per day. As of noon on October 15, Clark was leading in number of votes in its category, outpacing much larger schools like Colorado State University and the University of South Carolina.

Clark College has earned Tree Campus USA designation from the Arbor Day Foundation for the past four years in a row. If the college is a winner in this contest, it plans to use the prize to host a tree-themed geocaching scavenger hunt.
