

Clark College takes next step in hiring new president

Community and college representatives selected to screen and recommend finalists for the next Clark College President. Community and college representatives have come together to form a Presidential Search Advisory Committee at Clark College. Their job will be to screen applicants and recommend presidential candidate finalists to the Clark College Board of Trustees.

The committee met for the first time on October 11 to review the process, participate in implicit bias training, and discuss the job description for the next president. The composition of the committee is outlined in Clark College policy 610.025. It includes community leaders as well as college students, staff and faculty.

The committee's work is supported by non-voting members Dr. Preston Pulliams, CEO of Gold Hill Associates, and Stephanie Weldy, Interim Executive Assistant to the Board of Trustees.

"Diverse community involvement is key to a transparent, equitable and inclusive process," said Paul Speer, search lead and member of the Clark College Board of Trustees. "This is a moment in history for Clark College. Our next president will shape the future of the college supporting our students, community, faculty and staff."

The Board of Trustees, with assistance from the committee, has now approved the job description which is posted and being distributed nationwide. It can be found at <https://collegepresidentsearch.com/searches/>.

Preston Pulliams of Gold Hill Associates is conducting the candidate search. In early October, he held two open houses and conducted numerous individual interviews to get input on the college's opportunities, challenges and hopes for a new president over the next decade.

The Search Advisory Committee will meet again in early November to participate in an equity in hiring workshop.

Candidate applications are due mid November. The Committee will review the qualifying applications and select semi-finalists by late November.

The Board of Trustees plans to approve finalists in December, providing sufficient time to have the candidates visit Clark College in January for interviews, community and college forums. The Board plans to announce the new president in February 2020.
