

The Weekly News: Week 30

This week

Kudos to the Facilities Services staff and Safety and Security officers at Columbia Tech Center for responding so quickly to the water damage due to flooding from a broken water pipe over the weekend. We recovered quickly thanks to the Facilities team and the Office of Instruction's Joanne Savage, who figured out room moves for the remainder of the week and made the changes in 25Live. The restoration phase will be rebuilding the damaged systems and bringing the building back to completed form. This might take a month or two, depending on class schedules,

contractor/staff availability, and the extent of the repairs needed after the recovery phase. Thanks to all for the quick response in getting classes back up and running.

I enjoyed a delicious,
four-course Mardi Gras lunch in the McClaskey Culinary Institute this past week and also stopped in to see beautiful Japanese calligraphy created by students.

As an ex officio member of the Foundation Board, I shared an update on the progress of the 10 board priorities for this year. At the Board of Trustees work session, it was inspiring to listen to the 11 tenure-track candidates share their passion for teaching. Kudos to the Tenure Office and all of the support Danielle Plessner and Quincy Berkompas have provided to the candidates and the tenure committees to make this a well-organized and supportive process.

At the Board of Trustees meeting we heard heartfelt student testimonials on the impact that the college
navigators and the MESA program have had on students' lives.
In describing his experience at Clark College, student Jovan Merceron shared, "I feel like a person, and the faculty always care. Clark is a place where you can become somebody and become the best version of yourself."

It was my honor to welcome the statewide Council for Unions and Student Programs to Clark

College for their Winter Quarter meeting, which was hosted by Sarah Gruhler, Director of Student Life. It was made even more special to reconnect with a former student life director I had previously worked with at Everett Community College. I also enjoyed celebrating birthdays and getting to know some of our amazing faculty and staff.

Budget

In my earlier budget message sent today I let the college know the Budget Committee has recommended going with a conservative option in projecting 2020-21 enrollment. This option anticipates fewer state-support, Running Start, and International students than we built into the current year's budget.

Given our recent enrollment history, I accepted the committee's recommendation to plan very conservatively for next year's budget. But the net result of serving fewer students, coupled with increases in must-fund items such as wages and benefits increases for all faculty and staff, leaves us with a $5.4 million deficit to close in 2020-21.

To put this deficit in perspective, last year's 5% budget cut saved $3 million. To close next year's projected shortfall we will have to find cuts of 7 to 8%.

We are faced with a significant budget challenge, and solving

it will require everyone's participation. The Budget Committee will soon be announcing the process for engaging the entire college community in developing next year's budget. In the meantime, please feel free to share your thoughts with your Budget Committee representatives. A current committee roster is attached to the earlier budget message.

President Search

Thank you everyone who took time to provide feedback on the finalists for the position of Clark College President. All feedback provided online is confidential and anonymous. The Board of Trustees extends their appreciation to you for the thought and time you have put into helping them
select the next leader of the college. You can remind yourself of the three candidates by going to the Presidential Search Finalists web page.

The Board of Trustees is on schedule to make a hiring decision as early as Friday, February 14. The decision would be made during the open session of the Board of Trustees meeting. We'll be quick to update you by email and with news alerts as soon as we hear the news. All three of our candidates are excited at the prospect of leading Clark College and working with all of you.

New MESA Director

Please join me in welcoming Dalila Paredes to her new role at Clark College as MESA Program Director! Dalila highlighted two of her students and presented at Wednesday's Board of Trustees meeting. It is so encouraging to hear from students who are thriving at Clark College.

Margaret Tolmacheva is studying to be a mechanical engineer, and she's currently President of the NERD Girls Club. Derek Ferguson is studying to be a nurse practitioner. They both say MESA's tutoring, textbook supports, and personalized attention are all important resources helping them succeed. Dalila has taught college STEM classes for a decade. She previously opened a STEM tutoring center at Amarillo College in Texas.

The Clark College MESA program currently has 95 students enrolled who are pursuing degrees in science, technology, mathematics and engineering. It provides added supports for low-income students of color who are underrepresented in STEM-related careers. The current group of students has an average 3.08 GPA and a 79% retention rate. Dalila says she hopes to create more internship opportunities for MESA students. If you have ideas or want more information, she can be reached at dparedes@clark.edu.

Clark/Vigor agreement signed

This is exciting! Clark College has signed an MOU with Vigor for what will be a very positive partnership benefiting our students. I mentioned this a few weeks ago. Vigor has a new $1 billion contract to build next-generation landing craft for the U.S. military and needs skilled welders.

Caleb White and his team are creating curriculum that will ensure students have the skills that Vigor needs. Vigor will offer interviews to our students that will potentially lead to employment opportunities. In addition, Vigor will send their current employees to Clark for training. This is exactly the kind of partnership we want for our students and our employers.

So many people to thank, let's start with Caleb White, Welding Department Head and his team of expert welding faculty. Also Vice President of Instruction Sachi Horback and Interim Dean of WPTE Armetta Burney for making this a high priority and negotiating the newly signed MOU. This is a big win for our students, our college and our employers. Congratulations to our Welding Program and Office of Instruction!

Faculty Kudos

Congratulations to Bruce Elgort, Computer Technology Instructor.

He has been recognized by IBM as an IBM 2020 Champion. The international program recognizes innovative thought leaders in the technical community. It provides training opportunities to its recognized champions.

1,400 individuals were nominated from 44 countries. IBM announced its 600 champions this week.

Bruce is one of approximately 250 recipients from the United States. Bruce is a great example of an innovator bringing the very latest in a rapidly changing world to our students.

Clark College Grants

Clark College has been awarded more than $2 million in grants this past year. I want to thank everyone, especially Julie

Robertson, Director of Planning & Grant Development, who have obtained these additional resources that benefit our students in direct and meaningful ways. Over the next several weeks, I'll be highlighting some of the grants and how they're being used.

On the foundation side, Clark College's Veterans Resource Center

was recently named the recipient of a $245,700 grant thanks to the Cowlitz

Indian Tribe. This is a tremendous investment in our veterans and we are grateful for the support.

On the college side, you may remember the Career Connects grants awarded in September. This comes from a dedicated fund identified in the Governor's budget; one-time money to help bolster and expand college programs in high-demand industry. Clark College received $1.3 million earmarked for the Mechatronics program. It provides capital equipment funding and instruction funding to support more FTE's.

SBCTC provided Clark with $100,000 for Guided Pathways – specifically for the student emergency assistance grant.

I like to highlight these grants because it requires substantial work to apply for, and then manage, the grant. These are valuable additional resources to the college that help us fund high-demand services and programs.

Alpha Sigma Phi Honors

The Alpha Sigma Phi Chapter at Clark College has been recognized nationally as a 2020 REACH Chapter. REACH stands for Recognizing Excellence in Acceptance and Completion with Honors. PTK members will receive special graduation stoles to wear in honor of their achievement. Clark College is grateful for their many contributions to our community.

Honoring our students

Because we place so much emphasis on supporting our students I wanted help spread the word.

Each year, the ASCC Officers host the OSWALD Awards (Outstanding Students With Academic Leadership and Development skills) to recognize Clark College students for their outstanding achievements. You can submit the names of current students you would like to be recognized at the 2020 OSWALD Awards.

Award categories and submission forms can be found by visiting the OSWALD website. The deadline is Friday, March 20.

Next week

I am looking forward to attending the women's and men's basketball games this weekend and honoring former athletes and teams who are being inducted at the ninth annual Clark College Athletics Hall of Fame. Next week I'm hosting the Clark Equity Advisory Committee, an event I look forward to each month. This group of dedicated community leaders have provided great insight and feedback on improving college culture for systemically non-dominant students.

I also look forward to attending WSUV's 30-year celebration of research and community partnerships and representing Clark College on the WSUV Advisory Council. And finally, as we all excitedly anticipate the announcement of the next president, I have convened an onboarding committee to support their success.

Great things continue to happen every day here at Clark
College.

Thank you for all you do.

The Weekly News: Week 29

This week

I kicked off this week with welcoming our new employees to the Penguin Nation at their orientation session. Thank you to Vanessa Neal for organizing this engaging event, and to each of the program presenters as well. I appreciated hearing from classified staff at the WPEA Membership meeting as they shared concerns about college climate with me. I joined the foundation for a "Conversation" with community leaders hosted by Patrick Ginn, CEO of the Ginn Group, at his office. It was an informative evening of making connections with Clark College and updating the group on some of the exciting things happening here, including the new applied baccalaureate programs. Thanks to Nursing faculty member Nick Luisi for sharing his inspiring keynote presentation at the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and Multicultural Peer Mentors' Winter 2020 Queer Student Luncheon. I also stopped in at the Transfer Fair in the Student Center and delighted to see so many of our students exploring what's next for them on their path to success.

Presidential finalist feedback is due Feb. 4

If you haven't already, remember to submit your feedback online for our three finalist presidential candidates. Employees can do so online from the ClarkNet home page (login required). All feedback must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 4. All feedback will be anonymous and confidential.

BASHS recognition

The Washington State Department of Health recently issued a report titled "Evaluating the Need for Creation of a Bachelor's Level Behavioral Health Credential." Clark College's own Bachelor of Applied Science in Human Services degree program was singled out as an example of the kind of degree path that combines training in both addiction and mental health to create behavioral health care professionals that meet new guidelines set out by the Affordable Care Act. Kudos to Dr. Marcia Roi and the rest of the team behind our BASHS program for being forward-thinking about how best to prepare students for the future of health care careers.

Advising takes their show on the road

You may have seen staff from Advising Services around campus recently talking with students as part of a new "Pop-Up Advising" initiative. They are reaching out to students to promote the importance of making connections with academic advisors early. This is a great example of putting Guided Pathways goals into action by making this key service more accessible to students who might not come into their offices. Academic Advisors will be visiting CTC and CCW this term as well. If you have an area of the college you think would benefit from a Pop-Up Advising session, contact advising@clark.edu.

Go Penguins!

Congratulations to our women's basketball team, who beat Portland Community College 71-43 on Wednesday. Find out about scores and upcoming games at www.clarkpenguins.com.

Gaydena Thompson

Finally, I want to take a moment to recognize the passing of an important figure in Clark College's history. Gaydena Thompson, who taught physical education at Clark College for more than three decades and served as our Athletic Director for five years, died on December 31 at the age of 84. Gaydena was a truly remarkable person: Not only was she Clark College's first female athletic director, but she was the first female athletic director at any Washington State community or technical college. Our Thompson Fitness Center is named after her. A celebration of Gaydena's life will be held at 2 p.m. on February 1 in Gaiser Student Center. Those who wish to do so can donate to Clark College Foundation in Gaydena's name by visiting www.clarkcollegefoundation.org/campaign/give, selecting "Other" in the drop down menu and specifying the "Gaydena Thompson Fund."

Next Week

I am looking forward to enjoying a Mardi Gras-inspired menu in the MCI Student Restaurant next week. I'll be sharing an update on the college at the Foundation Board meeting, attending the Columbia River Economic Development Annual Investor Event, meeting the first- and second-year tenure probationers at the Board of Trustees Work Session, hosting birthdays with the president, and attending the STEM Seminar Series on February 7 ("Worthwhile Challenges of Fieldwork in Congo Basin" by Clark College anthropology faculty member Jay Fancher). And I'll be ending the week by celebrating our new inductees into the Clark

College Athletic Hall of Fame. This year's honorees include:
1968 Men's Golf Team; 1995 Men's Basketball Team; Dan Johnson, Men's Basketball
1966-68; Michele (Westmorland) Brown, Women's Softball 2012;
and Marc Hadenfeld, Men's Track & Field 1969-70.

Great things continue to happen every day here at Clark
College. Thank you for all you do.

The Weekly News: Week 28

Presidential Finalists

This week we all have one last chance to participate in the search process for Clark College's next president. Our three finalists have now completed their interviews on campus, which included an open public forum and a student forum. Those forums were recorded, have been close-captioned and have now been posted at <http://www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/forums.php>.

I encourage you to take some time, watch the forums, and click on the link to provide feedback on each candidate. The comment sections will remain open until 5:00pm Tuesday, February 4th. The Board of Trustees will take all feedback from the forums and panels into consideration as it begins its deliberations on naming the next president for Clark College.

You can also review the resumes and biographies for each candidate at <http://www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/forums.php>. Thank you to everyone who participated in the process leading up to this moment. Our three finalists are:

- Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy, vice president of student access, involvement, and success at SUNY Westchester Community College
- Dr. Karin Edwards, president of the Cascade Campus of Portland Community College
- Dr. Lamata D. Mitchell, vice president of instruction and academic operations at Pima Community College

The Board of Trustees is on schedule to make a hiring decision within the next few weeks. I want to thank the Board for its excellent work in creating an inclusive and engaging process. As a result, Clark College has three highly qualified finalists who are all excited about coming to Clark College as your next President.

Important student events – Winter Transfer Fair

Student retention is so critical to our success as a community college. Most of our staff have some contact with students. It is important for us to know about important events for students to help them along their path. The Winter Transfer Fair is one of those events. It is going to be held Thursday, January 30, 2020 from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. in Gaiser Hall Student Center. The transfer fair gives students a chance to connect with representatives from dozens of schools offering bachelor's degrees for transfer students. They can ask questions about:

- admissions requirements, deadlines, and next steps to take
- cost, scholarships, and other options for covering your expenses
- what degrees, majors, and minors are offered
- what the campus and community offer to students

Questions? Contact Joe Jenkins, Academic Advisor at extension 2459.

Building Cultural Competency

Clark College leadership recently participated in a daylong training to build our competencies in working with our regional tribal governments. The Governor's office sponsors the "Government to Government" training to help better understand and strengthen our relationship with Washington State's 29 tribes, especially the Cowlitz Tribe. The Executive Cabinet, deans, Foundation staff, facilities, and student support staff participated. We covered many topics during the day, including tribal historical perspectives, legal issues, tribal sovereignty and tribal government. We appreciate the Cowlitz Tribal leaders who participated and hosted the training. It helped deepen our understanding of Tribes, their history, their culture, and how to build on our relationship moving forward. Here's a link to the Governor's Office of Indian Affairs for more information about the program and resources: www.goia.wa.gov/.

New Employee Resource Group

Next week, a group of employees will launch a new Employee Resource Group to support social equity and inclusion at Clark College. The White Allies will focus on professional development related to white-identified employees at Clark College engaging in dialogue and education to drive cultural change within Clark College. The first meeting will be February 6, from 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. in GHL 205.

In addition to the new White Allies Resource Group, below is a list of all other approved Employee Resource Groups:

- Black Employees United
 - Contact Rashida Willard, rwillard@clark.edu
- Caring for a Mentally Ill Loved One
 - Contact Teri Miller, tmiller@clark.edu
- Indigenous Communities
 - Contact Nikki Peters, npeters@clark.edu
- STEM Lean-In Circle
 - Contact Tina Barsotti, cbarsotti@clark.edu
- Latinx Employee Resource Group
 - Contact Judith Hernandez Chapar, jhernandezchapar@clark.edu
- Clark Foster and Adoption Network
 - Contact Heather Adams, hadams@clark.edu

Additionally, the college is looking for volunteers to revive the Queer Employee Resource Group and Multicultural Employee Resource Group. For questions you may have about ERG's, please contact Alyssa Voyles, Associate Director of Employee Equity, Outreach and Engagement at avoyles@clark.edu.

Statewide meetings

I attended the Washington Association of Community and Technical Colleges (WACTC) meetings this past week in Olympia. The college presidents and chancellors are talking about priorities at the state level. That means we are talking about funding issues and how best to articulate our case to the Legislature as to the financial pressures on community colleges statewide.

Also this past week, I welcomed representatives from community colleges statewide to Clark College for the Articulation and Transfer Council (ATC) winter meeting. The ATC reports to the Instruction Commission (IC) and consists of the deans of arts and science programs or transfer programs from each of the colleges. It is an important opportunity to share best practices in clearing the path of potential obstacles for community college students as they complete and transfer to other programs. It was great to reconnect with a Council I had previously served on for years as a dean of transfer programs at Olympic and Cascadia Colleges.

Legislative update

The State Legislature continued into its second week taking public testimony on bills addressing Workforce Education Investment Act funding. Passed last year, the act created a business and occupation tax surcharge on certain businesses to fund the act's provisions. The Department of Revenue is having difficulty collecting the surcharge. In addition, forecasted demand for the Washington College Grant, created under the Workforce Education Investment Act, is higher than anticipated. The result is a potential funding shortage, which the Legislature is working to address with the two proposals heard this week.

Committees also took up bills on access to higher education and funding options, faculty staffing and housing, and college hiring practices related to sexual misconduct. The SBCTC has provided a full legislative recap for the week on its website at www.sbctc.edu/blogs/legislative-news/2020/2020-01-24.aspx.

Clark hosts regional equity conference

There is an exciting conference coming up on campus February 19-20, 2020. Registration is still open for the inaugural Northwest Regional Equity Conference for Higher Education. There is depth, weight and real value in this inaugural event organized and hosted by Clark College. Registration fee is $250. This is a great way to use professional development funds. However, if cost is a barrier please contact the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion at extension 2292. More info: www.clark.edu/campus-life/student-support/diversity-and-equity/equity-conference/index.php

Upcoming events

I enjoyed greeting new team members at our New Employee Orientation this morning. The EC will be meeting all day for our annual budget retreat. I have the chance to attend another “Conversation” event with the Foundation about great things happening at Clark and I will be attending the Clark STEM Seminar Series speaker; “Climate Issues and Changes in Nutrient Cycling” presented by WSUV PhD student Corey Ruder. It’s Friday January 31, at noon in SBG 151.

Go Penguins!

Basketball season has begun. Check out the schedule. I’m proud of our teams, our coaches and our athletes.

State of the College – new date

Please mark your calendars: I hope you can all join me for the 2020 State of the College address. A new date has been set for Wednesday, February 26, 2020 from 11:00 a.m. to noon at Gaiser Student Center.

We will have great news about our new president and we will announce the inaugural recipients of two new employee awards: the Lora Whitfield Social Equity Award and the Exceptional Administrative Exempt Award.

The Weekly News: Week 27

This Week

What a week it has been!

I am so happy to see students and faculty back in classes, and grateful for everyone who rolled up their sleeves this past week and persevered.

The two-year faculty contract for 2018-2020 includes significant pay raises for full-time and adjunct professors.

It also spells out the distribution formula for the high-demand nursing stipend funding as authorized by the legislature.

The final signed copy of the contract will be available once it has been finalized and posted on clarknet.clark.edu under Faculty Resources.

Many of you have expressed to me your concerns about how we will manage impacts on the budget when we have made new commitments at the same time that our enrollment and revenue are declining. This will likely require us to closely examine every vacancy before we post it and to leave some positions unfilled. It will also likely mean holding the line on other expenses, such as travel and goods and services. I cannot promise that we will not feel a pinch this fiscal year but I can assure you that we will explore all options.

Looking ahead to the 2020-2021 budget, our Budget Committee is working on a process that will engage the entire college community. We will need everyone's ideas and contributions to help make the difficult budget decisions that lie ahead. There are no magical answers out there, but I believe a budget process that values openness, transparency and accountability will enable us to share in the work of righting our financial picture for the near-and long-term.

Presidential Finalists

This week we also hosted two of our three presidential candidates on campus.

Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy, vice president of student access, involvement, and success at SUNY Westchester Community College and Dr. Karin Edwards, president of the Cascade Campus of Portland Community College, have each participated in the two-day interview process.

I encourage you to go online and provide input on the forums for both candidates. We want to hear your feedback.

We have an easy-to-use link for you at www.clark.edu under "Important Updates." For those who were not able to attend the forums, videos of the forums will be available as soon as all forums are completed and captioned.

Next week, Dr. Lamata D.
Mitchell, vice president of instruction and academic operations at Pima Community College, will visit the campus for the two-day long interview process.

The student forum will be held Tuesday January 21 at Foster Hall Auditorium from 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. The college forum will be held Wednesday January 22, also at Foster Hall Auditorium from 12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

We received word Wednesday that finalists Dr. Joaquín G. Martínez, district vice provost of institutional effectiveness at Miami Dade College, had removed his name from consideration citing personal reasons. We thanked him for his interest. We are confident that we have a slate of highly qualified candidates who are excited about the opportunity to lead Clark College into the next decade.

The Board of Trustees is on schedule to make a hiring decision by early March.

As a reminder, biographies and resumes of our three finalists are available online at www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/finalists.php

Congratulations!

Such good news to report out of our Welding Department that is working closely with a major manufacturer in our region, Vigor. Vigor has a new large military contract to build boats and needs skilled welders. They have toured our program and are excited to work with us.

Caleb White and his team are creating curriculum that will ensure students have the skills that Vigor needs.

In addition to curriculum development, we are in the process of developing an agreement with Vigor that will provide our welding students with an opportunity to participate in interviews that could potentially lead to employment opportunities. In addition, Vigor will send their current employees to Clark for training.

This is exactly the kind of partnership we want for our students and our employers.

I thank Mohammed Maraee of the Southwest Washington Center of Excellence, who helps develop the relationship between colleges and employers in this region. He helps us better understand employers' needs, while helping the employer understand the rules that govern higher education and accreditation. He helps us find ways to work together.

None of this would be possible without Welding Department Head Caleb White and our team of expert welding faculty. They bring both vision and practical skills to lead the effort to create curriculum that fits the needs of the employers.

Welding instructor Wade Housinger was instrumental in showing Vigor what we do at Clark and our capacity to meet their needs. It has been a team effort from the start. Thank you Vice President of Instruction Sachi Horback and Interim Dean of WPTE Armetta Burney for making this a high priority.

This is a big win for our students, our college and our employers. Congratulations to our Welding Program and Office of Instruction!

HS+ Student Success

Twenty-three Transitional Studies students earned their high school diplomas through Clark College's High School+ (HS+) Program following fall quarter.

HS+ is a competency-based high school diploma program for adult learners age 18 and older who do not have a high school diploma or equivalency.

The program was rebranded statewide from High School 21+ to High School+, recognizing those 18-to-20 are now eligible for the diploma provided they satisfy state requirements for their graduating class.

Several of the graduates were employed while completing their diplomas, had jobs lined up upon graduation, or enlisted in the military. Congratulations to the graduates, and thank you to our team for helping them succeed.

Clark Music Highlights

I know you will join me in sending kudos to Professor Donald Appert. Our Clark College Orchestra Conductor and Music Director is being honored internationally.

His latest composition Contrapunctus (Mirrors) for Flute and Trombone, which was commissioned by Dr. Philip Martinson and Dr. Shelly Martinson, will be premiered at the International Trombone Festival in Osaka, Japan in summer of 2020. Congratulations, you make Penguin Nation proud.

Jazz Festival next week

The 58th annual Jazz Festival is nearly here – January 23-25 at Gaiser Student Center. It is free to all college faculty, staff and students. It's a three-day event jam-packed with outstanding musical talent all in one place. For more information: www.clark.edu/cc/music.

Clark hosts regional equity conference

There is an exciting conference coming up on campus next month. Registration is still open for the inaugural Northwest Regional Equity Conference for Higher Education. There is depth, weight and real value in this inaugural event organized and hosted by Clark College. Registration Fee is $250. This is a great way to use professional development funds. However, if cost is a barrier please contact the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion at extension 2292.

More info:
www.clark.edu/campus-life/student-support/diversity-and-equity/equity-conference/index.php

Upcoming events

I'm looking forward to attending the 10th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Breakfast Celebration held by iUrban Teen with a team from Clark College, as well as our annual MLK event in the Gaiser Student Center on Tuesday, January 21, and seeing the interactive hands-on display of the history of Buffalo Soldiers/Black cowboys 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. and the Buffalo Soldiers of the Pacific Northwest documentary discussion being held noon – 1:30 p.m.

Join me in honoring Dr. King's legacy of service to others by donating hair- and skin-care products for African-American families served by YWCA Clark County. Donations can be dropped off at the Student Center. More information at www.clark.edu/cc/mlk/

New date to be set for State of the College

A reminder – we will be setting a new date for the State of the College, which was rescheduled because of the strike this past week.

The most exciting part, for me, is announcing the inaugural recipients of two new employee awards: the Lora Whitfield Social Equity Award and the Exceptional Administrative Exempt Award.

I will update you on the plans next week.

Also rescheduled

The Student Involvement Fair has been moved to Wednesday, January 29 from 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. in the PUB student center. We can encourage our students to check it out, enjoy a free lunch, and learn about the clubs, programs and resources available at Clark.

Also a student resource for all of us to remember as we interact with students: the Tutoring Centers at Clark. They provide free tutors to assist with most courses offered at Clark. The centers also have computers, printers, calculators, and other tools for students. The link is www.clark.edu/cc/tutoring.

I am reminded of impermanence of all phenomena today as the Tibetan Monks destroy the beautiful Sand Mandala in the closing ceremony. They will be taking a small amount of the colored sand in a procession to Columbia River, where it will be poured into the water for the health and well-being of our waterways and marine life, ultimately making its way to the Pacific Ocean to benefit all beings there.

As we celebrate a new year, I hope we can move forward together supporting one another to make Penguin Nation a great place to work and to learn. In honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s legacy of service to others, take time during this long weekend pick up some hair- and skin-care products for African-American families to donate to the YWCA Clark County and take time to recharge.

One of Martin Luther King Jr.'s quotes that has guided me throughout my life is, "I have decided to stick with love. Hate is too great a burden to bear."

Open forums for presidential candidates announced

Dr. Karin Edwards, Dr. Lamata Mitchell, and Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy

Dates have been set for the open forums for community members to meet the three finalists for the Clark College President position. These forums are a chance for members of the Clark College community and other stakeholders to meet the finalists and ask questions about their leadership experience and philosophy.

Each candidate will hold two open forums during their visit to the college: one that's open to the public, and one that's specifically for students. The forums will be recorded. On January 27, the videos will be available to review at www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/finalists.php. There will be links to provide feedback available through February 4, 2020.

Biographies of all three finalists are available online at www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/finalists.php. Full resumes are also available online at <http://www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/forums.php>.

A fourth finalist, Dr. Joaquín G. Martínez, has withdrawn from the hiring process.

Open forum dates

Public open forums

All public forums are scheduled for noon to 1:00 p.m. in Foster Auditorium on the college's main campus. Each forum will be live-cast to the college's Columbia Tech Center and Washington State University Vancouver locations—room numbers are posted at <http://www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/forums.php>.

- Tuesday, January 14: Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy, vice president of student access, involvement, and success at SUNY Westchester Community College
- Friday, January 17: Dr. Karin Edwards, president of the Cascade Campus of Portland Community College
- Wednesday, January 22: Dr. Lamata D. Mitchell, vice president of instruction and academic operations at Pima Community College

Student-focused forums

All student-focused forums are scheduled for 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Foster Auditorium on the college's main campus.

- Monday, January 13: Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy, vice president of student access, involvement, and success at SUNY Westchester Community College
- Thursday, January 16: Dr. Karin Edwards, president of the Cascade Campus of Portland Community College

- Tuesday, January 21: Dr. Lamata D. Mitchell, vice president of instruction and academic operations at Pima Community College

Clark College is located at 1933 Fort Vancouver Way, Vancouver. Driving directions and parking maps are available at www.clark.edu/maps. Individuals who need accommodation due to a disability in order to fully participate in this event should contact Clark College's Disability Support Services Office at 360-992-2314 or 360-991-0901 (VP), or visit Penguin Union Building (PUB) room 013, as soon as possible.

The Weekly News: Week 24

This past week

I can't believe this is the last weekly news for 2019. My time at the Penguin Nation has flown by fast. As I reflect back on the last twenty four weeks, I count your success and the amazing work you have done in teaching and supporting our students. I look forward to all that 2020 brings to Clark College, including its next President.

Correction

My apologies for the oversight in listing the Presidential search committee members in last week's Weekly News: I accidentally omitted Cath Keane from Career Services. I greatly appreciate Cath's participation on the Search Committee. Thanks, Cath.

Presidential Finalists College Forums

The four presidential candidate finalists will be on campus in January. I encourage everyone to attend the college forums that will be held as part of the two-day long interview process and provide your feedback. We are still finalizing the location on campus but I can tell you the forums will be held 12:00-1:00pm on the following dates:

- Tuesday, January 14: Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy, vice president of student access, involvement, and success at SUNY Westchester Community College.

- Friday, January 17: Dr. Karin Edwards, president of the Cascade Campus of Portland Community College
- Wednesday, January 22: Dr. Lamata D. Mitchell, vice president of instruction and academic operations at Pima Community College
- Friday, January 24: Dr. Joaquín G. Martínez, district vice provost of institutional effectiveness at Miami Dade College

Biographies of all four finalists are available online at www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/finalists.php

Budget news from Olympia

The Governor released his 2020 Supplemental Operating and Capital Budgets on December 18. Below is a summary of the Governor's proposals that impact the community and technical college system:

Operating Budget

1. $2.4 Million for the Job Skills Program – In alignment with his Career Connect Washington initiative, the Governor proposed to expand customized, short-term and job-specific training for incumbent workers through the Job Skills program. Job Skills co-invests with employers who need customized training due to growth and changes in technology, and to address skills shortages. Currently, the Job Skills Program has $5 million in funding to provide training to meet employers' specific needs. Due to the high demand, the entire $5 million has already been committed for this biennium. If funded by the Legislature, this would allow a 50 percent expansion of the program, which is highly respected by both business and labor.

- $1.6 Million for Increased Attorney General Services – These funds were requested by both the Attorney General and SBCTC to cover unanticipated legal costs.

Capital Budget

The Governor's budget does not include any new capital funding or local financing authorities for the CTC system.

These are the "bigger pieces" of his budget affecting our system. Minor changes that typically occur in a supplemental budget (i.e., changes in pension rates and funding) are also proposed. I will let you know if we discover anything noteworthy as we dig into the details, as well as updates on the Legislature's budget decisions.

Faculty Negotiations continue

Clark College and the AHE are meeting today, December 27, to continue negotiations to settle a contract dispute. I want to acknowledge the strain that this places on everyone at Clark: our students, our staff, and our faculty. Clark College is committed to our students to ensure they are able to start and successfully complete their winter quarter.

Contingency planning is underway in the event there is a strike. Communication will be critically important as we move forward. We have created a website, easily findable from the clark.edu home page, to help everyone stay up-to-date on events and how they affect the college's operations.

I am deeply concerned a strike would have detrimental impacts on students and our college community. Please know Clark College wants to reach a settlement, move forward, and support our students.

I want to also remind employees of our EAP resources during these times of stress. It's easy to say and sometimes harder to do, practicing good self-care as stressors build up.

Washington State EAP is accessible, free and confidential. You can call (360) 407-9490 or toll-free at (877) 313-4455. You can also visit the EAP website for more information.

Looking ahead

There is an exciting conference coming up on campus soon. Registration is still open for the inaugural Northwest Regional Equity Conference for Higher Education. Registration Fee: $250

I'm also looking forward to attending our annual MLK event in Gaiser Student Center on Tuesday, January 21, 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., and seeing the interactive, hands-on display of the history of Buffalo Soldiers/black cowboys, as well as attending the Buffalo Soldiers of the Pacific Northwest documentary screening and discussion from noon to 1:30 p.m.

Join me in honoring Dr. King's legacy of service to others by donating hair- and skin-care products for African-American families served by YWCA Clark County. Donations can be dropped off at the Student Center. More information at <http://www.clark.edu/campus-life/arts-events/mlk/>

As we say goodbye to 2019 and head into the new year, I'm getting excited about delivering the 2020 State of the College Address on January 16. The most exciting part, for me, is announcing the inaugural recipients of two new employee awards: the Lora Whitfield Social Equity Award and the Exceptional Administrative Exempt Award.

Thank you to all who nominated your colleagues for the inaugural Lora Whitfield Social Equity Award. As a reminder, this award is given to a member of the Clark College community who has demonstrated a sustained commitment to advancing equity. We are excited to announce all the nominees:

- Dian Ulner
- Dr. Debra Jenkins
- Shanda Haluapo
- Connor Cantrell
- Cath Busha

For this inaugural year of the Exceptional Administrative-Exempt Award, 19 nominations were received. The award honors an Administrative-Exempt staff member who contributes in significant ways toward building a positive climate, inclusive environment, and improvement in the quality of life at Clark. The awards committee were impressed by all the submissions, whether nominees were eligible or not. Congratulations to all the nominees and heartfelt thanks to those who nominated them:

- Ben Cecka
- Kevin Damore
- Guisela Eberle
- Sarah Gruhler
- Shanda Haluapo
- Judith Hernandez Chapar
- Heather King
- Jennifer Lea
- Sami Lelo
- Kent Pruett
- Mirranda Saari
- Sabra Sand
- Ashley Schumacher
- Michael See
- Kevin Thomas
- Tasaday Turner
- Vanessa Watkins
- Melissa Williams
- Carley Willis

The winners of these two new awards will be announced at the 2020 State of the College Address on Thursday, January 16. A huge thank-you to all the nominees for making Clark College a better place to work and to learn.

If you have been nominated, be sure to attend the State of the College Address to be recognized. Please join me in honoring your colleagues at this event next month.

To all those who are off campus for the break, I wish you safe travels on your way back to us. I am off for a few days to attend my daughter's wedding in Leavenworth, Washington. They are having an outdoor wedding in the snow on January 4. I'm hoping for clear roads to get over the pass.

Four finalists named in presidential search

Dr. Karin Edwards, Dr. Joaquin Martinez, Dr. Lamata Mitchell, and Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy

The Clark College Board of Trustees has announced the completion of a major step in selecting the next Clark College President. The trustees selected four finalists Wednesday, December 18, at its monthly public meeting. The board acted on the recommendations made by the search advisory committee that conducted interviews with ten semi-finalists last week.

"It's a milestone in our search and a moment to celebrate," said Board Trustee Paul Speer. "The Search Advisory Committee has accomplished its task in finding Clark College four outstanding candidates. I thank them for their excellent and collaborative work."

The four finalists are: Dr. Karin Edwards, president of the Cascade Campus of Portland Community College; Dr. Joaquín G. Martínez, district vice provost of institutional effectiveness at Miami Dade College; Dr. Lamata D. Mitchell, vice president of instruction and academic operations at Pima Community College; and Dr. Sara Thompson Tweedy, vice president of student access, involvement, and success at SUNY Westchester Community College. Full biographies of all four finalists are available online at www.clark.edu/presidential-search/search/finalists.php.

Clark College received 65 qualified applications as it began its recruitment process in September with the assistance of a national search firm, Gold Hill Associates. The Search Advisory Committee comprised of community leaders, college employees and students then reviewed the applications and narrowed the field to ten semi-finalists. Last week, the committee interviewed all ten candidates and made their recommendations to the Board of Trustees.

"This was a great process to be part of," said Al Schauer, a committee member and business leader. "I appreciated the robust discussions and ultimately, the strong consensus within the committee that Clark College has four outstanding candidates to choose from.”

“This has been an inclusive search with multiple perspectives represented in the process,” added Eric Merrill, Clark College Foundation Board Chair and member of the President Selection Committee. “This is a critical leadership position for the college and our community. It’s exciting to see high-caliber candidates who want to serve as our next college president.”

The finalists will be invited to the college in January for constituent panel interviews and public forums. It is expected that the Board of Trustees will make its selection by the end of February 2020 and that the new President will begin onboarding in the summer of 2020 in preparation for the 2020-2021 academic year.

Current Interim President Dr. Sandra Fowler-Hill was hired in June 2019 to lead the college through the transition. She was not a candidate for the permanent position. Fowler-Hill stepped in when former college president Bob Knight retired last summer.

“Having an interim president has allowed the college and the community this important time to carefully consider who will lead the college into the next decade,” said Speer. “Dr. Fowler-Hill has provided key leadership at a critical time and will help the onboarding process with our next President.”

More information about the ongoing search process can be found at www.clark.edu/presidential-search.

The Weekly News: Week 21

This week

Thanks to everyone who participated in forums this past week with Dr. Chris Hill, AACC Coach, on Guided Pathways. She recognized the extraordinary work that has been done on Guided Pathways by the faculty and student services staff as well as the improvements we can make in communication and decision-making. She will be providing us with a summary of her observations and recommendations. I'll look forward to sharing her report with you.

I stopped by the STEM building last week and was wowed by the Computer Science and Engineering students. I got to see learning in action with the students presenting ideas for their year-long projects. Walking through the lobby I chatted with students explaining their ideas for software applications, drones, robots, power systems, games, internet-of-things and online services. I can't wait to see the results of their work later in the year.

Winter Social

You are all invited to the Winter Social Tuesday, December 10, at Gaiser Student Center. The reception begins at 2:00 p.m. and the program begins around 2:30 p.m.

As is the tradition, we will honor our Clark College employees who have retired in 2019. I am looking forward to carrying on this Penguin Nation tradition.

Supporting students during Finals Week

This will be my first Finals Week at Clark College—and the first for many of our students as well. It can be a time of stress for them. They may try to read their notes as they're walking through the parking lots; they may show up in unconventional spaces (like an unoccupied conference room) as they try to study in peace; they may forget to eat. Let's all offer them a little extra dose of grace and patience as they navigate this important milestone in their education.

Speaking of which, the college is offering help for their next milestone: There's an open lab held most of this week to provide one-on-one assistance to students trying to enroll on ctcLink for next term. Located in APH 210, its hours are:

- December 9 and 10, 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
- December 11, 9:00 a.m. – noon

Time to nominate outstanding employees

A new award for 2020 is the Clark College Administrative and Exempt Excellence Award honoring two Exempt staff members who contribute in significant ways toward building a positive climate, inclusive environment, and improving the quality of life at Clark. Submissions can be made by filling out the online submission form by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, December 13.

'Tis the season

You may have seen or heard recent news reports of this season's first confirmed measles case in Clark County. Last January, when Clark County Public Health announced an official outbreak, college employees were asked to locate their immunization records in case a confirmed case at the college led to CCPH instituting an exclusion protocol. It's probably a good idea to once again make sure you know where those records are—just in case. Not sure if you have your immunization records? For those of you visiting childhood homes during Winter Break, they often wind up in a back drawer or old photo album. And if you were vaccinated here in the state of Washington, chances are that your records are available online. Staff at the Counseling and Health Center have very kindly volunteered to help any student or employee find their records through the state's online database. They are located in HSC 124. Let's all help to keep each other healthy and safe this winter!

Lace up those sneakers!

Before coming to Clark, I knew that Penguins marched, but I had no idea how many of them ran as well! Every March, a "Clark Penguins" team participates in Portland's Shamrock Run.

To register for the event, visit the 2020 Shamrock Run Registration Page; this link will automatically identify you as part of Clark Penguins when you register. To find out more about this event, contact Haley Tucker in Event Services, who is organizing this year's team.

Progress on ctcLink

Now that ctcLink has been up and running for a month, the college is starting to leverage its functionality. One great example of this is the "academic advisement reports" being created for every certificate and degree at the college. These will take the place of the myriad program worksheets, educational plans, Degree Audits, etc. that people have used to map and track students' program progression—creating a single source of truth for students, faculty, and staff alike. As of this week, we now have academic advisement reports created for 31 of the college's programs—including the Big One, the Associate in Arts – DTA degree (by far the most common degree that our students earn). Kudos to everyone in Credentials, Advising and the Office of Instruction for their work on this monumental task!

Great things have been happening across the college—congratulations!

Congratulations to mechatronics professor Chris Lewis on being awarded $603,397 for equipment purchases approved in the grant application for the Semiconductor and Electronics Manufacturing Technician Career Preparation and Launch program funded by the SBCTC through a capital budget appropriation

Congratulations to the Nursing Faculty and Jennifer Obbard, Associate Dean-Health Sciences, on the approval for continuing ACEN accreditation. I received a letter from a former colleague who is now the Director of Nursing Education for the Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission announcing the approval and thanking the program for their continued commitment to quality nursing education in Washington State.

Congratulations to Dr. Jacob Funk, Director of Choral Activities, and Shelly Williams, Program Coordinator for Music, on a very successful Choral Festival. I recently received a letter from one of the adjudicators who noted, "I was struck by several positive aspects during the festival: the careful and thorough organization of the festival; the visible good nature of all the student helpers involved; and the star quality of the lynchpin of the day, Ms. Shelly Williams, the sine qua non of the Department, who was everywhere to solve all the little things that are bound to come up at events of this kind. Clark College should be very proud of this event."

Looking forward to next week

Next week are Final Exams and Winter Registration for new students. As students and faculty prepare for Winter Break, I know our Enrollment Services team will be working hard to get students ready for Winter Term.

I am looking forward to hosting some new members of our community from my old neighborhood with a tour of the college with the Foundation staff and introducing them to the great programs at Clark. I'm also excited about recognizing our retirees at the Holiday Retiree Reception on Tuesday. I hope I can catch a glimpse of the Christmas ships from the riverfront this week before I leave for the Washington Association of Community and Technical College Presidents meeting on Thursday.

The Weekly News: Week 20

This week

Welcome back from the holidays! I hope you had time to rest and enjoy time with friends and family. I enjoyed volunteering delivering Meals on Wheels in Hillsboro with my husband and finalizing plans for my daughter's wedding in January. It was wonderful having 4 days to spend with family.

This morning our student leaders hosted Washington State Legislators at the Clark College annual legislative breakfast. They talked to our elected officials about their priorities, specifically college accessibility and affordability. We have a strong ASCC leadership team this year, and they were excellent representatives of our college students.

Also today, we are meeting with our AACC Guided Pathways coach, Dr. Chris Hill. She is on campus today and tomorrow to review our work to date and assist us in moving this important work forward. Dr. Hill will be meeting with the Guided Pathways Core Leadership Team; Pillar 1, 2, 3 and 4 Teams; Board of Trustees; faculty; students; and professional development teams to learn more about our progress and plans for implementing Guided Pathways. Everyone is invited to attend the College Debrief at the conclusion of her two-day visit on Tuesday at 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. in GHL 213.

Career Launch at Clark College

Our Mechatronics Program has been endorsed as a Career Launch Program by the SBCTC. This is exciting news for several reasons.

- It formally acknowledges our partnership with SEH America to provide students with real work experience while pursuing their AA degree.
- It also opens the door for state grants to provide equipment for the program.
- It provides incentives for additional businesses to participate in the Career Launch program.

A formal announcement will be made next week. I wanted to give you advance notice of this great news. It signals a new chapter in our partnerships with local employers.

I want to acknowledge the work of Mohammed Maraee, who has brought the Center of Excellence for Semiconductors and Electronic Manufacturing to Southwest Washington. He is working closely with Clark College and area employers to build these important relationships.

I want to thank our team at Clark—Julie Robertson, Genevieve Howard, Armetta Burney, Sachi Horback, and the mechatronics faculty—for your work in responding to industry and moving this important initiative forward.

Presidential Search Milestone

On November 25, the Presidential Search Advisory Committee, having reviewed 65 applications, selected ten semifinalists to be considered as our college's next president!

The next step will be confidential semifinalist video interviews conducted by the Search Advisory Committee during the second week of December.

Three or four finalist candidates will then be advanced to the Board of Trustees for their approval at their December meeting.

During January, approved finalists will participate in constituent panel interviews and public forums at Clark College. Evaluation visits to finalists' colleges will also take place in January.

It is expected that the Board of Trustees will make their selection by the end of February 2020, and that our new President will begin onboarding in the summer of 2020 in preparation for the 2020-2021 academic year.

Thank you everyone who is supporting this important work for the College, our students, staff and community. More information on Clark's presidential search can be found at www.clark.edu/presidential-search.

Grant Awards

Clark College was awarded $100,000 from SBCTC to expand access to the college's Student Emergency Grant Program.

This funding is $50,000 per year for two years, starting January 2020.

This funding provides monetary assistance to students experiencing unforeseen emergencies or situations that affect the student's ability to attend classes (e.g., paying for food, transportation, childcare, or other goods or services needed in order for the student to continue attending classes). This funding will provide low-barrier access for students (with no income restrictions), even if they do not meet the traditional definition of a "high-need" student. To date, Clark College has awarded over $44,000 in emergency grant assistance, and this additional funding will allow the program to prevent even more students from dropping out due to financial emergencies.

The Emergency Grant fund includes support from Clark County Community Action Fund Grant, SBCTC Student Emergency Assistance Grant, and Clark College Foundation. Combined, these funds provide approximately $100,000 each year to support our students! Starting in January, all Emergency Grants will be administered through the Financial Wellness Program in Student Affairs.

Thank you to the team who helped write the grant: Julie Robertson, Kevin Thomas, Edie Blakely, Selena Castro and Cath Busha. Well done!

Concerts this week

The Clark College Orchestra Fall Concert is set for Wednesday evening at 7:30pm on December 4. Our congratulations to Dr. Donald Appert: This is his 30th anniversary leading the orchestra. The performance begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Skyview High School Auditorium, 1300 NW 139th St., Vancouver. Free Admission.

The Clark College Women's Choral Ensemble and Chorale, under the direction of Dr. Jacob Funk, will perform their Fall Concert on Thursday, December 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Vancouver First United Methodist Church, 401 E. 33rd St, Vancouver. A second concert is scheduled for Saturday, December 7 at 7:00 p.m., also at Vancouver First United Methodist Church.

Admission to both concerts is free.

The Clark College Concert Band, under the direction of Dr. Doug Harris, will perform “Fanfares & Dances” on Friday, December 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Durst Theatre of the Vancouver School of Arts and Academics, 3101 Main St. Free admission.

I want to thank everyone in the Clark College Music Department for their talents and time in creating memorable moments for our students and our audience. Congratulations!

Giving Tuesday

Tomorrow is Giving Tuesday – a global generosity movement encouraging people to contribute time and treasure to their favorite charities. As a reminder, we have an employee giving campaign at Clark College supporting students through the Foundation.

You can choose where and how your gift is used. There is a match program ongoing for the Penguin Pantry. A generous donor has committed to a $5,000 match for the pantry if we reach our goal of 220 donors who make a gift of $10 or more by June 18, 2020. You can make a gift here any time.

However you choose to observe Giving Tuesday, I appreciate all the ways you support our students at Clark College.

Next

week for your planning

You are all invited to the Winter Social Tuesday December 10, 2019 at Gaiser Student Center. The reception begins at 2:00 p.m. and the program begins around 2:30 p.m.

As is the tradition, we will honor our Clark College employees who have retired in 2019. I am looking forward to carrying on this Penguin Nation tradition.

The Weekly News: Week 18

National Honors

Clark College has been named a 2020 Best for Vets college in the Career and Technical College category by Military Times—just one of 19 colleges across the nation to receive this designation. It's the third year in a row Clark has earned Best for Vets status. Kudos to everyone in the Veterans Resource Center, as well as everyone across the college who helps support our student veterans!

New VP of DEI named

Please join me in congratulating Rashida Willard, who has accepted the appointment as the new Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion at Clark College. This is an important milestone for the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and a positive leap forward for the college in supporting our staff, faculty and students.

Rashida stepped into the role as interim 17 months ago while still the Director of Operations and Risk Management in Administrative Services. She has taken on additional responsibilities in service to the college and she has earned the respect of her peers, our students, and the community as a strong and effective leader.

During this interim period, she has created and developed structures, spaces, and programs to help remove barriers for students and she's leading the effort to create a culturally competent campus to help students succeed. She is deeply invested in this work and passionate about creating inclusive, safe, and welcoming environments where all students have maximum opportunities to succeed.

Rashida holds a master's degree in Business Administration, a bachelor's degree in Business Administration, and an associate degree in Organizational Dynamics. She is currently attending Concordia University, pursuing a doctorate in Education with a concentration in Professional Leadership, Inquiry and Transformation.

Under Rashida's leadership, the ODEI team has built good momentum, developing new initiatives and programs that will help our college move forward.

Please join me in congratulating and thanking Rashida for accepting this role.

Penguin Power!

We did it, Penguins! We won the Walktober challenge between Clark College, Lower Columbia College, and WSU Vancouver. Our 68 Walktober participants averaged 9,694 steps during the month of October, winning us a trophy and bragging rights. Special shout-outs to our top Penguin walkers:

- 1st place: Sydney Brahmavar (Environmental Science) – 843,756 steps
- 2nd place: Aaron McPherson (Facilities Services) – 826,264 steps
- 3rd place: Travis Kibota
(Biology) – 720,732 steps
- Departmental winner:

Environmental Science, with an average daily total of 27,218 steps

... And, of course, to Interim Director of Talent Acquisition and Development Vanessa Neal, who led our Walktober efforts. I invite all Walktober participants to join Vanessa, Oswald, and myself at noon on November 20 at the Japanese Friendship Garden (or inside O'Connell if it's raining) for a group photo with our fabulous trophy.

Kudos to the STEM Team

Thanks to dozens of STEM Unit students, staff, and faculty volunteers who hosted the Elementary Science Olympiad on Saturday, in conjunction with the Southwest Washington Science Olympiad (WSO). Eighteen teams of third-through-fifth graders from throughout Southwest Washington participated, representing 14 schools from 8 school districts, with a total 270 students. The challenging and motivating events of WSO align with Washington State Learning Standards. The events throughout the day were designed to enhance and strengthen both science content and processing skills.

And, thanks to the Clark College Surveying and Geomatics Department, in conjunction with the United States Forest Service, for hosting Geographic Information Systems (GIS) Day on Friday. GIS is a scientific framework for gathering, analyzing and visualizing geographic data to help us make better decisions. GIS Day included a number of speakers, displays, and interactive geospatial activities.

Also, congratulations to STEM Dean Peter Williams on his recent presentation with Dr. Carli Schiffner, SBCTC Deputy Executive Director of Education, and Dr. Gita Bangera, Dean of the RISE Learning Center at Bellevue College, on “Scaling Up Classroom Undergraduate Research Experiences Statewide” at the Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U) Transforming STEM Higher Education conference in Chicago, Illinois.

Time to nominate outstanding employees

There are three employee award programs now accepting nominations. I hope you will look around you and decide to make a nomination: the Lora Whitfield Social Equity Award, the quarterly Classified Excellence Award, and the Exceptional Administrative Exempt Award.

The Lora Whitfield Social Equity Award honors a member of the Clark College community that has demonstrated a sustained commitment to advancing equity. Award recipients will receive a plaque along with $1,000 funded by the Clark College Foundation. This award will be presented at Opening Day before the beginning of fall quarter each year. This 2020 inaugural year, the award will be announced during State of the College in winter quarter.

For 2020, nominations should be submitted by November 29 for the Executive Cabinet to review and select an award winner by State of the College in January.

Please nominate a Clark College Employee by visiting the Lora Whitfield Social Equity Award page and fill out the online submission form.

Do you know of an outstanding Classified employee at Clark? Have you been looking for a meaningful way to say “thank you” to that person who has gone above and beyond in their service to you, your department or the college community? Now is your chance to acknowledge that special person.

Also, nominations are being accepted for outstanding Classified employee at Clark for the 2019 Fall Quarter Award. Please continue reading for more information. Submissions can be made by filling out the online submission form. Please only submit a nomination for the current quarter. The deadline is 5:00 p.m. on Friday, November 22. For questions, contact Vanessa Neal, vneal@clark.edu in Human Resources.

And, a new award for 2020 is the Clark College Administrator and Exempt Excellence Award honoring two Exempt staff members who contribute in significant ways toward building a positive climate, inclusive environment, and improving the quality of life at Clark has been created. Submissions can be made by filling out the online submission form by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, December 13. For questions, contact Lisa Wolfson, lwolfson@clark.edu in the Office of the President.

Selection

will be based on the following criteria:

- Exemplary Work Performance
 - Excellence in work performance
 - Makes a significant impact on the College (give examples of involvement, attitude, helpfulness, etc.).
 - Contributes and demonstrates commitment to the College's mission and core values.
- Initiative and Collaboration
 - Positive interaction and engagement with all community partners (faculty, staff, students and the public)
 - Exhibits respect for fellow workers and students
- Special Achievements or Contributions to the College Community
 - Initiates or actively participates in projects for the betterment of the college community
 - Serves in leadership roles with campus groups/committees and/or external college partners
 - Displays consistent interest in and active support of diversity; seeks and promotes interaction with and between groups with differing ideologies, cultures, socioeconomic status, etc.

Recipients of this award will receive a glass plaque and $1,000 funded through an anonymous donor's contributions to the Clark College Foundation. These awards will typically be announced on Open Day before the beginning of fall quarter each year. This inaugural year (2019-2020), the awards will be presented at the State of the College address during winter quarter.

To be eligible, the nominees must be a current full-time Administrative employee who has been in their current position for more than twelve (12) months. Members of the President's Executive Cabinet are not eligible to be nominated.

Congratulations, Dr. Donald Appert

The award-winning Clark College Orchestra will present its Fall concert as part of the 2019-20 season celebrating the 30th anniversary of Music Director/Conductor Donald Appert on Wednesday, December 4 at Skyview High School.

This all-orchestral extravaganza will include La Valse by Maurice Ravel, Nuages and Fêtes from Claude Debussy's Nocturnes, and Josef Suk's Symphony No. 1 in E minor. The performance is at 7:30 p.m. and admission is free and open to the public. Donations to the Orchestra General Fund will be accepted at the door.

For complete information about all the Clark College Music Department concerts including the orchestra, concert band, jazz ensemble, and choirs, please see <http://www.clark.edu/campus-life/arts-events/music/music-concerts>.

We are fortunate to have such treasures at Clark College.

Student Enrollment

Clark College began registering students for Winter quarter this past week for priority registration. While Clark's ctcLink Project Management team works to provide access to queries that will help manage enrollment, I ask for your patience. Planning and Effectiveness is working to redevelop our enrollment management tools in Tableau to be available to all during winter quarter.

Open Enrollment for employees

It's that time – a chance to review and make changes to your public employee benefits. Open enrollment ends Saturday, November 30. To make changes go to My Account on the PEBB website. If you have questions about your benefits or account, please contact one of our benefits team members:

- Thao Schmidt, tschmidt@clark.edu, ext. 2628
- Amy Harrington, aharrington@clark.edu, ext. 2325
- Guisela Eberle, geberle@clark.edu, ext. 2119

Reflections from this past week and looking ahead

Once again, I want to share my appreciation for the Clark ctcLink team, who have done an amazing job throughout the goLive conversion. I am inspired by the dedication of all the staff that I've seen across the campus in Finance, HR, Student Services, Instruction, Planning and Effectiveness, and IT who have been problem-solving throughout the week. Change is hard, and this has been exhausting and frustrating work. This amazing team has risen to the challenge. The whole state community college system has been watching us to see how this is done. Congratulations again, Penguin Nation. You've got this!

This next week I look forward to my first quarterly meeting between the WSUV Executive Team and Clark College Executive Team. The following day the Clark College Executive Team is participating in a daylong retreat with Dr. Kathy Obear, continuing to work on improving ourselves as a team.

Congratulations to the Penguin Men and Women who are running

NWAC Cross Country Championship in Lacey today (Monday, November 18). Go Penguins!!

I will be in Seattle the remainder of the week with Shanda Haluapo, Associate Vice President of Planning and Effectiveness and Clark College Accreditation Liaison Officer, at the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities Annual Conference on Student Success, where I look forward to learning more about the new Eligibility Requirements and Accreditation Standards for 2020. I plan to stay in Seattle for the weekend to have an early holiday with my family.

This coming weekend will be a busy one on campus, with performances of "A Bright New Boise" in the Decker Theatre in Frost Arts Center Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30 p.m.; Men's and Women's Basketball games in O'Connell Sports Complex; and the Clark College Jazz Band, under the direction of Dr. Doug Harris, presenting its "A Salute to the Big Bands" on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in Gaiser Student Center.

And just because Walktober is over, that doesn't mean we Penguins should stop being active: Get ready for the Fall Free Fun Run and Walk next Tuesday, November 26, at 1:15 p.m. in front of the Cannell Library. Registration is free and starts at 1:00 pm.
