

Students of Color Luncheon

Clark College pre-nursing student Nushi Alam shared her story with Clark students, faculty, and staff at the Spring Student of Color Luncheon on April 16.

Sakura Festival is April 25

Clark College's 2024 Sakura Festival on Thursday, April 25 will honor the historic ties of friendship between the sister cities of Vancouver, Washington, and Joyo, Japan.

April Art Talks

The gallery is presenting four art talks in April. All are free and open to the public.

Engineering competition

Teams of student engineers crowded around tables in the collaboratorium in the STEM Building on March 12 for the winter term Engineering competition to present the bridges they had spent weeks perfecting.

Career Connect

More than 60 students, alumni, and community members participated in Clark's Career Connect event geared for students enrolled in programs in the college's Business and Entrepreneurship area of study.

Phi Theta Kappa Induction

Phi Theta Kappa celebrated 134 new members at the 2024 winter term Induction Ceremony.

Showing the Way

On Wednesday, February 28, the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion hosted a Black Student High School visit, where more than 100 students visited Clark College.

Northwest Regional Equity Conference

More than 600 people attended the fifth annual conference hosted by Clark College's Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion with Southwest Washington Equity Coalition.

Black History Month

The Clark College Bookstore is hosting an exhibit featuring the work of two local Black artists, Claudia Starr Carter and Philemon Reid.

Winter Music Concerts

The Clark College Music department presents five concerts from March 6 through 22. Admission is free. All are welcome.