

Diesel Technology open house

At Clark's Diesel Technology open house on June 1, faculty and students demonstrated diagnostic tools and systems, and showcased diesel trucks and heavy equipment to visitors.

Welding Open House

About 50 people attended the welding department's open house on the evening of April 28. Students and faculty were on hand to demonstrate welding techniques and to answer questions about the program.